Surf Ballroom Instrument Lesson Scholarship Program

Policy Form

The Surf Scholarship Program provides low-no cost lessons for students who shows musical interest and potential. The student is connected to a teacher at the Surf Ballroom Music Experience Center and the teacher is paid their normal rate (as designated on their contract with the Surf Ballroom Music Experience Center) from the Surf Scholarship Program funds. These funds were made possible by generous grants and donations from our sponsors:

Please read over the policy sheet and sign below to show you accept the following requirements as stated. Failure to abide by these requirements may result in the loss of this opportunity.

The family will:

- Participate in an introductory interview with the Surf Ballroom Music Experience Center teacher to go over specific studio policies/requirements.
- Provide transportation to/from lessons.
- Ensure regular attendance at lessons / give reasonable advance notice if a lesson must be missed.
- Provide a suitable place and time for musical practice.
- Support the child's musical activities at home, school, and in the studio.

The student will:

- Arrive at scheduled lessons on time, with required music books and assignments well prepared.
- Maintain consistent practice of music assignments as assigned by their teacher.
- Participate in performances and other studio activities.
- Student may be required to write a brief (half page) report if they apply to purchase an instrument through the Surf Ballroom Instrument Lesson Scholarship Program.

The Surf Ballroom Music Experience Center teacher will:

- Instruct the student in the same manner to other students in the studio.
- Keep the scholarship status of the student confidential within the studio.
- Inform parents of student progress in the program through annual student evaluations.
